Section 2 – Application Process

To be eligible for membership, a person must complete an electronic membership application in such form as shall be adopted by the Board of Directors from time to time. All memberships shall be granted upon approval by the Board of Directors.

Section 3 – Rights of Members

Right and responsibilities of the Contributing and Non-contributing members shall be set by the Board of Directors. Each Contributing member in good standing shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members, including the election of Directors to the Board.

A meeting of the members shall be held annually for the election of directors and the transaction of other business, at such date, time, and place as the Board of Directors may determine. Special meetings of the membership may be called by the President at their discretion, at the direction of the Board, or at the written request of at least 10% of the Contributing membership. All meetings may be conducted by any means through which all persons participating in the meeting can participate at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 5 – Notice

Notice by email to the organization’s main electronic mailing list for announcements, or by individual email to the email address on file for each Contributing member, shall constitute written notice to the members, subject to the next paragraph.

Written notice stating the means, place, date, hour, purpose of a meeting of the members shall be sent via email not less than seven (7) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 6 – Termination from Membership

Section 3 – Election and Term of Office

Directors are elected by vote of the Contributing members, with the voting method, victory criteria, and related procedures specified by board resolution. Any board resolution addressing the topics in the preceding sentence shall take effect no sooner than sixty (60) days after notice of its adoption shall have been given to the members, and in any case shall not take effect during an election of Directors. Notice to the members shall be given when such a resolution takes effect, separate from notice of that resolution’s adoption.

Before the annual meeting of members next following the adoption of this paragraph, the board shall by resolution divide the Directors into three (3) classes for the purpose of staggering their terms of office within the meaning of Section 704(a) of the N-PCL. Such resignation shall be made in electronic form, delivered via e-mail, and shall take effect at the time specified therein, and if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the organization or the President. The acceptance of a resignation by the Board shall not be necessary to make it effective, but no resignation shall discharge any accrued obligation or duty of a Director.

Section 7 – Vacancies and Newly Created Directorships

Any vacancies on the Board arising at any time and from any cause may be filled at any meeting of the Board by a majority of the Directors then in office, regardless of their number, with such appointment by the Board to last only until the next annual meeting of the members. A vacancy in the Board shall be deemed to exist on the occurrence of any of the following:

- (a) the death, resignation or removal of any Director;
- (b) an increase in the authorized number of Directors; or
- (c) the failure at any annual or other meeting at which any one or more Directors are to be elected, to elect the full authorized number of Directors to be voted for at that meeting.

reasonably determined to be sent by the board member. No notice need be given of any adjourned meeting.

ARTICLE XI – MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1 – Amendments

An amendment or repeal of these Bylaws may be proposed by the affirmative vote of the majority of the entire Board. If such amendment or repeal (1) is approved by every Director then in office, (2) contains in its text an explanation of why it must take effect immediately, (3) does not modify this section, and (4) does not alter the composition or voting rights of the membership or the Board, it will take provisional effect upon notice to the members, at such later time as may be specified in its text, or at such later time as may be required by section 3 of Article IV. The amendment or repeal shall not continue in effect more than sixty (60) days unless it shall have been first approved by a majority of votes cast in a vote of the members. If this vote of the members occurs at a meeting of the members, the applicable quorum will be that in section 8 of Article III. Otherwise, the quorum will be ten percent (10%) of the members entitled to vote, or ten (10) members, whichever is greater. If the vote of the members does not yield the approval of a majority of votes cast, or if it fails to attain quorum, the amendment or repeal shall thereupon cease to have effect.

If an amendment or repeal of these By-laws is proposed by the affirmative vote of the majority of the entire Board but does not meet the conditions of the second sentence of the previous paragraph, such an amendment or repeal will take effect thirty (30) days after notice to the members, at such later time as may be specified in its text, or at such later time as may be required by section 3 of Article IV, unless ten (10) members first request a vote of the members. If a vote of the members is so requested, the amendment or repeal will have no effect until that vote has concluded, and shall take effect only if a majority of votes cast do not reject it. If the vote of the members occurs at a meeting of the members, the applicable quorum will be that in section 8 of Article III. Otherwise, the quorum will be zero (0) members, but the vote will not be valid unless the members shall have received proper notice including a period of at least seven (7) days during which to cast a vote.

Any amendment or repeal of these Bylaws in accordance with the foregoing provisions is authorized only at a duly called and held meeting of the Board for which proper notice of such meeting, setting forth the proposed alteration, is given in accordance with the notice provisions.

Amendment or repeal of these Bylaws is otherwise only authorized at a duly and called annual or meeting of the members for which proper notice of such meeting, setting forth the proposed alteration, is given in accordance with the notice provision.
